

THE BLUE RHONDDA

COLIN TURNER

PAUL ROSSER

MEL CREW

THE BLUE RHONDDA - a new line up which continues to deliver emotive, original songs with strong Celtic flavours. Paul Rosser is a prolific song writer, his music combines elements of rock, folk, blues and tinges of country, taking you on an emotional journey you don't want to end. As in the tradition of folk-rock, the stance of the songs is carried in the lyrics as well as in the unrelenting drive of the music. An unpretentious band with a wide appeal in terms of content and entertainment.

THE BAND

PAUL ROSSER

Vocals, acoustic guitar, harmonica, percussion

Paul has a strong stage presence and delivers songs that have been described as "exuding passion and emotion" and "tough but delicious noise, holding a clenched fist in a velvet glove".

MEL CREW

Lead guitar, mandolin, vocals

Mel, an excellent musician both instrumentally and vocally, brings his own unique style of folk, blues, country and rock to the performance.

COLIN TURNER

Bass guitar

Colin has worked with Paul for many years playing both lead and bass guitar and brings a solid, decisive sound to the forefront.

Folk Roots Rock with a dash of Country and a touch of Blues!
